

2014-2015 Research Grants

Lukasz Drozd

Modeling the Revolving Revolution: Role of IT Reconsidered

Erik Gilje

Do Firms Engage in Risk-Shifting: Empirical Evidence

Todd Gormley

Passive Investors not Passive Owners; Agency Conflicts and Competition; and Playing it Safe?
Managerial Preferences, Risk and Agency Conflicts

Philipp Illeditsch

Optimal Treasury Bond Investment in a Nonlinear Term Structure Model

Ivan Shaliastovich

Volatility Risk in Financial Markets

Ali Shourideh

The Effect of Differential Mortality on Optimal Taxes

Kent Smetters (Business Economics and Public Policy)

A Sharper Ratio

Amanda Starc (Healthcare Management)

Information Presentation and Medicare Part D Choice

Mathieu Taschereau-Dumouchel

Understanding the Relationship between Policy Uncertainty and Economic Activity

Luke Taylor

The Turnover Performance in Active Portfolio Management; The Financing Decisions of Venture Capital Backed Firms

Amir Yaron

Do Financial Frictions Enhance Risk Premia

Pinar Yildirim (Marketing)

The Impact of Social Connections on Credit Scores

David Zaring (Legal Studies and Business Ethics)

Corporate Law and Shareholder Litigation over the Dividend Policy by Government as Conservator or Two GSEs (Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac)

Gal Zauberan (Marketing)

Taxes, Distribution, Motivation and Well-Being

Ian Appel (PhD Candidate)

Do Government Venture Capital Programs Crowd Out Private Pension

Yasser Boualam (PhD Candidate)

The Macroeconomics of Bank Contracts

Christine Dobridge (PhD Candidate)

Public Debt Crowd-Out; Does Wall Street Matter to Main Street

Michael Lee (PhD Candidate)

Informed Informed Trading and Macro-Investment Noise: An Empirical Investigation

Di (Andrew) Wu (PhD Candidate)

Asset Pricing in Supply Chain Networks